The 53rd Annual South-East Michigan Regional Junior Science & Humanities Symposium

The Southeastern Michigan regional JSHS program is housed in the College of Education at Wayne State University.

Since its inception in 1958, the primary aims of JSHS are to promote research and experimentation at the secondary school level and to recognize students for original research achievements.

Finalists are notified of awards to advance to the National Symposium during the dinner banquet.

- The Symposium is a valuable resource for students who plan to participate in this year's Science Fair and/or Science Olympiad.
- All the application forms, guidelines and other information are available at:
